FOREWORD

The $10,000.00 is raised! Congratulations, girls, and heartiest thanks to our generous contributors one and all. We shall all be interested to see by the Treasurer's Report where each penny came from, and most of us will be able to read between the lines and appreciate the eager effort and willing sacrifice involved. Those of us who went back to Sweet Briar for Commencement watched the progress of the Fund with interest akin to excitement, for it was only during that last week that the $10,000.00 was actually completed. The result thus far must surely thrill each one of us with pride, as being an evidence of the loyalty and devotion of Sweet Briar girls, who are able to report this as the result of their very first organized effort. The spirit to which it testifies means even more than the amount itself, for it speaks louder than dollars and cents. On the other hand, we would take advantage of this occasion to repeat our expression of gratitude to the generous contributors outside the Association, who inspired the effort on such a scale, and without whose help the result would have been discouragingly different.

And now we start the new year with $100.00 in our treasury and unbounded zeal in our hearts! It will spur us on still more if we constantly remind ourselves that the Fund is not an end in itself, nor a sum to be raised spasmodically, as our fancy dictates. Sweet Briar must rank with the finest colleges in our land, and this is the great goal to which the Endowment Fund is a necessary means. If we keep this ever before us, we shall re-dedicate ourselves to the cause with dauntless determination to arrive. With such splendid success for a beginning, we can only be satisfied with a still greater achievement this coming year. Of the $10,000.00 now in hand, we, as an Association, raised only $2,000. Our aim for 1915-1916 is to make our share $5,000.00, and it has been roughly estimated that an average of $200 00 from each chapter, plus individual pledges, will approximate that amount.

Any program will prove simple if we grasp our many opportunities to organize where we have not yet done so. Instead of only eight active chapters, there could and should be something like thirty-five. Surely no group of Sweet Briar girls will allow themselves to be deprived of a share in such a campaign as this! Such a state as Texas, for example, where there are ninety Sweet Briar girls, will surely not be satisfied to go any longer without any chapter at all! To every individual girl, wherever she is, let this be a challenge to count for something in her group. Don't let someone else get ahead of you now, but have the fun and credit of organizing a chapter yourself. And don't let any of us be content with merely electing officers or getting together for jollification. Only active groups are to be recognized as chapters, so please show your colors. By keeping the wires hot, the larger chapters could plan something for every month, and with an early start could give five or six affairs before next June. Pledges and dues for last year still remain unpaid, and in states where girls are too scattered for regular work, some loyal members can do a great service by canvassing their state for this year. If every single girl will feel a responsibility and do her share to carry out the plans of the Association, the result will be too glorious to foretell! Let's remember that an Executive Committee and a handful of workers are helpless in themselves, and that our success or failure this year depends upon what every individual girl does from now on! Here's to 1915-1916! Let our motto from now until June be "Never Stop," and see what happens!

Please fill out the pledge blanks immediately and return them to Katherine Wilson.

For the benefit of those who have inquired recently, we insert:

ARTICLE VI of the Constitution

DUES

The annual dues of membership shall be one dollar, payable to the Treasurer at the annual meeting. If any member pays twenty-five dollars at one time, she is exempt from further annual dues.

---

We wish to record a vote of thanks to Eugenia Buffington and the other members of the Committee, who led us so ably and with such marked progress during our first year as an amalgamated Association.

---

All chapters are asked to send their list of officers and all items of news to Amy Elliott, Sweet Briar, Va. She is in charge of our department of the magazine this year, and will depend upon each one of us to supply her with interesting material. Girls not in organized chapters will do us a great service, and add much to the interest of the department, if they, also will report promptly all individual changes and news. And be sure to subscribe to the magazine, and so keep in close touch with Sweet Briar and each other!

---

Ruth Maurice has consented to take charge of the old girls' play to be given at Sweet Briar during Commencement week this year. Her leadership is also enlisted in behalf of a pageant to be given in the suburbs of Philadelphia in the spring.

IMPORTANT

It will be noted that in some cases the amount reported by chapters does not correspond to the Treasurer's report. This is due to the fact that money sent directly to the Treasurer was classified as "Dues" and "Pledges," while the chapter counted it as a part of its pledge. If you wish your pledge counted into the chapter contribution this year, send it to your local Treasurer, but, please—all of you—send your annual dues to Katherine Wilson.

The Treasurer's Report and the article by Harriet Evans give some idea of the enthusiastic work of Sweet Briar girls—past and present. A report of the growth of the Endowment Fund would be hopelessly incomplete without some idea of the invaluable and substantial gifts of friends not directly connected with the College. Below is a list of those who gave the largest gifts. It is to be regretted that a lack of space prevents the enumeration of the countless smaller gifts, for which we cannot adequately express our appreciation.

Mr. Manson .....	$1,000.00
Mr. Fergus Reid .....	1,000.00

MINUTES OF THE 1914 MEETING

On Monday, June 1, 1914, a meeting of all former students visiting Sweet Briar was held in the administration Building. Marion Peele presided over the meeting at which the following girls were present:

Eugenia Griffin, Bessie Grammer, Mayo Thach, Antoinette Johnson, Lucy Tait, Frances Murrell, Nan Powell, Margaret Eaglesfield, Eugenia Buffington, Martha Tillman, Frances Richardson, Emma Morriss, Claudine Hutter and Emmy Thomas.

The question of combining the Alumnae Association with the Association of Former Students was first discussed. Mr. Manson and Miss Benedict spoke to the former students giving their views on the subject and advising that the two associations be combined. A motion was then made, seconded and carried that the Association of Former Students and the Alumnae Association combine under the name of The Association of Alumnae and Former Students of Sweet Briar College.

A committee was appointed to draw up a constitution for the new Association and the following officers for the year 1914-1915 were elected. President, Eugenia Buffington; Vice-President, Marion Peele; Secretary, Sue Slaughter; Treasurer, Katherine Wilson. An executive committee was then elected as follows: Eugenia Griffin, Mary Parker, Lelia Dew, Dorothy Taylor.

The next matter discussed was the formation of local chapters. It was decided to appoint, in each community from which several girls had come to Sweet Briar, one girl to organize a chapter of the Association in her community. The particular work agreed upon for the coming year was the raising of an endowment fund for the college. The executive committee was instructed to make plans for the year but in the meantime by a motion made and carried, it was agreed that every student then at Sweet Briar be urged to pledge a sum of money to be paid not later than June 1, 1915. (This plan was carried out on June 2, 1914, at a called meeting in the chapel.) As there was no other business before the Association the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

SUE R. SLAUGHTER, Sec. pro tem.

MINUTES OF THE 1915 MEETING

The second annual meeting of the Association of Alumnae and Former Students of Sweet Briar College was held at Sweet Briar on Monday, May 31, 1915, in the Academic Building. The meeting was opened by the president who made a short speech of welcome to the new members of the Association and thanked the old members for their splendid help during the past year. In speaking to the new members Miss Buffington urged that they think and work for the college immediately, before other interests crowding in upon them should make Sweet Briar less vital. The secretary's minutes of the last meeting were then read and approved. Following this the treasurer's reports were read and accepted.

Miss Benedict spoke informally of her pleasure in the successful raising of ten thousand dollars as a beginning of the proposed endowment fund. Asked to name a sum which she thought the Association might set before itself for the following year, she suggested five thousand dollars. From the Treasurer's report it had been seen that of the ten thousand dollars raised since 1914, only two thousand was given by the Association itself. The other eight thousand had come from interested outsiders or from the college itself. Thus in proposing that the Association set $5,000.00 as the amount it alone should try to raise Miss Benedict placed no limit on the endowment fund as a whole but expressed her confidence that the Association alone might raise more than twice as much money in 1915-16 as it had done in 1914-15. After some discussion it was seen that five thousand dollars might easily be raised if every chapter then organized and every chapter to be organized before October, 1915, should make two hundred dollars.

Reports of the organization, plan of meetings, and methods of money raising were then made by the following girls: for Philadelphia, Henrietta Washburn; for Huntington, Rebekah Patton; for Ohio, Helen Lamfrom; for Norfolk, Mary Pinkerton; for Salem-Roanoke, Eugenia Griffin; for New York, Ruth Maurice; for Evanston, Eugenia Buffington; and for Sweet Briar, Marion Peele.

It was moved and carried that all persons contributing one hundred dollars or more to the endowment fund be formally thanked in the name of the Association for their assistance. Following a report from the nominating committee the officers for 1915-1916 were elected. President, Henrietta Washburn; Vice-President, Marion Peele, Secretary, Sue Slaughter, Treasurer, Katherine Wilson; Executive Committee, Eugenia Buffington, Rebekah Patton, Hazel Marshall, Grace Martin.

As there was no other business before the Association a motion was made and carried that the meeting adjourn.

Respectfully submitted,

SUE R. SLAUGHTER.

LOOK HERE!

At the annual meeting of the Executive Committee of the Association at Sweet Briar during Commencement 1915, the members who were present decided to petition the Board of Directors of the College to grant the Association the privilege of having an alumna member of that Board, a privilege granted the alumnæ of other colleges of the rank of Sweet Briar.

This question was considered at the meeting of the Board of Directors held at Sweet Briar, October 29, 1915, and Mr. Manson, Chairman of the Executive Committee informs the Association that while at present it is inadvisable to enlarge the membership of the Board, the Board feels that an Advisory Committee with an alumna representative could be formed, such a Committee to act in connection with the Board. The plan would be to have this Committee made up of influential persons whose connection with Sweet Briar would aid its growth and development and who could ably confer with the members of the Board upon any questions concerning the college, but who, owing to the impossibility of making them actual Board members, would have no vote.

We feel deeply grateful to the members of the Board for granting the Association the right to be represented on such a Committee, and with such representation feel that the alumnæ may keep in close touch with the plans for development and policies of the College.

CHAPTER REPORTS

N. B.—Only those chapters that raise money are considered organized.

Although the girls and faculty who are still at Sweet Briar cannot properly be termed "alumnæ" or "former students," their organized work for the Endowment Fund has been so splendid and bulked so large that we are glad to print an account of it at the head of the list of chapters.

Sweet Briar

With the opening of school last fall, a strong spirit seemed to be prevalent—that of each organization having some definite goal for the year. When the College Club was reorganized, it was voted unanimously that its special task be not only to whoop "College Spirit," but to give a rousing cheer for the "Endowment Fund of Sweet Briar College." This was adopted as the life work of the club and the other organizations, as Student Government and Dramatics soon showed that they could do as well.

Before Christmas the work was, I fear, a little half-hearted, though a "Tacky Party" was given by the College Club and well-attended by all the others. Besides this, all the classes began to work individually for the grand old cause, and the fund was being boosted, if not actually swelled.

The greatest stimulus came the first morning after our return from the Christmas holidays, when Miss Benedict got up after chapel to announce that Mr. Manson would give $1,000 00 if we could raise enough more to make $10,000.00. The excitement that reigned for five minutes would have done your hearts good! The College Club's chief work was now carried on by the classes, and each seemed trying to outdo the other in its gift, which, they decided, should go in this year and not be held until the last year. Student government also took up the matter quite actively, and the dormitories were organized under heads for the houses and corridors, and the work was carried on with a swing. Dramatics also promised that her surplus bank account would be turned over to the Fund at the end of the year. We were all beaming with hope still more when, in addition to Mr. Manson's $1,000 00, Mrs. Emry promised to give $1,000.00 if the other $8,000.00 were raised. No one waited to question the result but went straight to work. The classes each gave a play or show of some kind and cleared close to one hundred dollars in each case. Besides this, the separate floors or dormitories worked together and made cake or popcorn balls or candy, and sold them in the other dormitories. The third floor of Manson was the first to do this, on the day the announcement was made. Carson had breakfast three times on Sunday mornings in the Domestic Science "Lab" for those who were locked out of the Refectory. Batter cakes and syrup and coffee were served, and $27.00 was cleared. They also served lemonade on hot nights in the Spring from 10 to 10:30 p. m. Grammer Hall gave a mock wedding and made over $25.00. Randolph served salad and ice in the "gym" when basketball games were in progress. Gray gave a prize fight when wrestling on the front campus seemed in vogue, and made about $30.00 from admission and the sale of refreshments. Each floor in each dormitory had a directory which read: "Marianne Martin blacks shoes" or "Margaret Grant darns hose," etc. Each girl in college was pledged to raise one dollar by her own efforts, and in many cases, by shampoos or tutoring, as much as six dollars was handed in. Numerous things were done which would scarcely be dreamed of, such as paying five cents for substituting in basketball or renting an alarm clock!

Noble assistance was rendered by the Faculty. First they presented "The Bachelor's Romance," and handed in nearly one hundred and fifty dollars. Those who were not on the stage were dressed as "befo' de wa'" mammies, to great effect, and sold ice cream cones and sang shouting songs at the back door!

Besides this, the people "down the hill" had two teas which were very successful, and quite a sum was cleared. Among the individual work, none is more to be commended than that of Miss Carroll, who for weeks sent sandwiches through the dormitories every night, and cleared $10.00 a week. Mlles. Prenz and Liardet made spatter-work sofa cushions and bags, and sold them for the Fund. Miss Chaney made nearly one hundred dollars and besides gave freely of her time to help all culinary efforts, advising and helping the Domestic Science Class to sell its wares instead of eating them! William Dew gave a circus at the Apartment House, and with the modest charge of five cents a person, was able to make a contribution of a dollar all by himself.

Thus the Fund grew, and we watched with bated breath Miss Benedict's bulletin which told of all the big things that were being done by you "old girls" outside, and our efforts seemed poor and futile. But still we hoped, and when, on May 28th, the sign said simply "$10,000," our hearts were full to bursting!"

HARRIET MCNAIR EVANS, 1915.

Chicago

The Chicago Chapter, reorganized last January as one of the chapters of the Sweet Briar Alumnæ and Former Students Association, has enrolled as its members the Alumnae and Former students who live in Milwaukee, Highland Park, Evanston, Chicago and Oak Park, making a total enrollment of thirty-five or forty members. At the first meeting, held in January, 1915, Gertrude Eisendrath was elected chairman and Gladys Beyers secretary and treasurer. Ways and means of raising money were discussed. By the last of January, some children's tableaux were worked up and presented in Evanston, netting $130.00.

The second business meeting of the chapter was held in April. The question before this meeting was how best to collect Association dues and pledges. It was suggested that we canvass by letter all of Illinois, besides the towns that are represented in the chapter, making an urgent appeal to girls who had not paid dues and pledges, and reminding them that June 1st was fast approaching, and the Fund was still far from the $8,000.00 mark. This suggestion was acted upon. An accurate report, however, of the results is hard to give, as so many of the pledges and dues were sent directly to Katherine Wilson the last week of May and the first two days of June.

The plans of this chapter for 1915-'16 are as yet unformulated. Money-raising, no doubt, will again be the widest plank in its platform. Besides the matter of dollars and cents, we'll probably consider and try out some scheme of publicity work for Sweet Briar in and around Chicago. The influence of individual girls, however, among their friends will no doubt prove far more successful in this line of work than any organized effort. "Arouse the interest and enthusiasm of every chapter member to the action-working pitch," is our slogan for the coming year.

EUGENIA BUFFINGTON, 1913.

Oak Park Ill.

Oak Park, a sub division of the Chicago chapter, with a membership of nine, sent in $100.00 to swell the Endowment Fund. March 23rd a benefit card party was given, and on May 28th a subscription dance. This group of girls has reorganized independently of the Chicago chapter, and the officers are as follows: President, Rachel Forbush; Secretary, Margaret Caldwell; Treasurer, Eugenia Hafner.

RACHEL FORBUSH.

New York

The New York chapter includes all the girls in the vicinity of New York City. At the first meeting last fall the following elections took place: Hazel Marshall, president; Dorys McConnell, secretary; Eleanor Sommerville, treasurer.

The first affair given by the chapter was the bridge party at the Plaza, when about $100.00 was made for the Endowment Fund. Mrs. Anna McCall, a relative of the Williams family, was interested enough to come, and talked intimately about them with some of the girls.

In May, the Newark girls, under the leadership of Ethel Day, arranged to rent a photo play. They made about $100.00 on the performance, and are to be lauded for their work and energy.

ALICE SWAIN, 1914.

Philadelphia

The Philadelphia chapter was organized to include not only the Sweet Briar girls of the city and immediate suburbs, but those also from nearby towns in adjacent states and east of Harrisonburg in the state of Pennsylvania. Beyond certain limits, however, this membership has proved purely nominal, because of distance, and it is only offering them a fair chance to suggest that central and western Pennsylvania have chapters of their own.

It was a large and enthusiastic group that gathered around a hearth fire in December to organize for action, and our hearts were warmed by the presence of girls just back from Sweet Briar for the holidays. We discussed ways for raising money and finally decided to begin by working individually in our various sections of the city. For the benefit of new chapters, we must acknowledge that this was a mistake and waste of time. Our first combined effort was a rummage sale given in April. Friends outside the chapter added to our stock of merchandise, and we were able to get a small store in the colored section free of charge. A thriving business was done from nine in the morning until five o'clock in the afternoon. Prices were forced down alarmingly, but we came home with sixty-six dirty but precious dollars.

As soon as this was over, we began to plan for a bridge party, and on the eleventh of May the beautiful lawn of the Country Club was the scene of a gay assembly. There were refreshments; and boquets supplied by one of our finest florists free of charge, were given as prizes. At this we cleared $60.00, making a total of $125.00 over and above pledges and gifts. May we double it this year!

HENRIETTA WASHBURN.

The Philadelphia chapter reorganized on the ninth of October, 1915. Elections were as follows: President, Marian Yerkes; Secretary, Marion Faust; Treasurer, Barbara Shand. Arrangements are being made for a rummage sale to be held as soon as possible.

Indianapolis

There are twenty-two Indiana girls who have been to Sweet Briar, but only eleven were in the state last winter. We have met several times a year for years, but organized in February, 1915, Carina Eaglesfield being elected president, and Margaret Recker secretary and treasurer.

In March we gave a rummage sale, and made $90.00 for the Fund, and in April another, when we cleared only $20.00, as there were only four active members in the town. The former was held in a downtown foreign tenement district, and the latter in a colored neighborhood. It was much easier to realize off of the rummage with the first people.

A bridge was planned in May, but there was no one left in town to give it.

CARINA EAGLESFIELD.

Ohio

Laura Portmann, who deserves great credit for her efforts to raise money in Ohio, writes as follows:

We raised about $145 00, counting Helen Lamfrom's $50.00 donation. Enclosed is a partial list of contributors through the chain letter. Margaret Kaufman, $25.00; Isabel Richards, $1.00; E. Bradfield, $6.00; A. Norris, $1.00; H. Babcock, $1.00; M. and V. Ely, $2.50; G. Anderson, $11.00; L. Sebring, $10.00; Gladys Schummers, $.25; H. Washburn, $.25; M. Dushane, $.25; F. Mitchell, $.25; G. Billhuber, $.25; M. Waite, $.25; M. Yerkes, $.25; B. Schreier, $.50; M. Boley Sullivan, $.25; M. Davis, $.25; D. Bancroft, $1.00; E. Clark, $2.00; A. Baldwin, $.25; A. Wilkinson, $.25; L. Wilson, $.25; C. B. Baker, $.25; M. Lewis, $.25; D. Brothers, $.25; Faye Elliott Pogue, $.25; Laura Portmann, $10.00; Mrs. F. E. Cudell, $1.00; Non-S. B. Girls, $.50, Etc.

Margaret Grant, the new Secretary and Treasurer, writes: "You will be interested to know that the Ohio Club held its reunion at the Women's Club, Cleveland, on September 8, 1915. Those present were: Eleanor Kingsbury Root, Grace Martin, Helen Pennock, Louise Case, Mary Bissell, Charlotte Seaver, Lucile Marshall, Laura Portmann, Lois Santer and Margaret Grant. Eleanor K. Root was elected president, Mary Bissell, Vice-President; and Margaret Grant, secretary and treasurer."

Huntington-Charleston Chapter

The chapter was organized in January, 1915, at Huntington, W. Va. It was decided at that time to pledge ourselves to raise $100.00 before the following June—fifty to be raised in Huntington, and fifty in Charleston. The Huntington girls raised their part by individual pledges and a rummage sale held in May. The day of the sale was far from fair, and our advertising was not as extensive as we should have liked. However, by the sale we were able to complete our pledge.

The Charleston girls through individual pledges made up their part.

REBEKAH PATTON, Pres.

Norfolk Chapter

The Norfolk Chapter was not regularly organized until November, 1914. During the preceeding year the Sweet Briar girls in Norfolk had met together about once a month to drink tea and talk over old times. After the organization of our big Association, however, and the call for chapters to raise an endowment fund, we formed into a more definite group, elected officers as follows: President, Mary Pinkerton; Vice-President, Margaret Cobb; Secretary, Virginia Etheridge; and Treasurer, Edith Hyslop; and made plans for raising money. In December we sold Christmas cards on commission. We cleared very little money this way but as we had been at no initial expense we felt that the resulting "nest egg" was worth the work. Later in the winter we gave a card party, but as we were too generous to our guests the proceeds were very small. In the spring we began a "mile of pennies," which we will keep up next year. In May we finished our campaign with a rummage sale which we agreed brought more money for our trouble than anything else we had tried. Our meetings were held every other month in the home of one of the members. After dispatching our business we enjoyed simple refreshments and a "gossip party." We hoped the Suffolk girls would join our chapter but with the exception of Abmeria Bailey from Hampton, we have had no members outside of Norfolk. In the fall of 1914 two of our members were married, Virginia Etheridge to Mr. Arthur Hitch and Lucelia McClain to Mr. I. T. Van Patton. Fortunately we did not lose their membership as both Mr. Hitch and Mr. Van Patton live in Norfolk. This fall we are losing three members—Mary Pinkerton and Mildred Cobb will spend the winter in Baltimore with their respective families and on Sept. 11, Margaret Cobb was married to Lieutenant Robert Meredith Perkins, U. S. A. It is with profound sadness that we record the deaths of Mary Northern and Nancy Schmelz in the spring of 1915.

SUE SLAUGHTER.

Salem-Roanoke

The Roanoke-Salem Chapter held its initial meeting in December at the home of Eugenia and Claudine

Griffin. The chapter members are: Eugenia Griffin, president; Kathleen Sexton Spiller, vice-president, Claudine Griffin, secretary; Elizabeth Darnell Snyder, treasurer; Ethel Jamison Kelly, Edna Banister, Avazo Lemon, Ria Thomas, and Annie Cunnock Miller. We decided to do what we could individually for the Fund—one girl tutoring, and all of us denying ourselves the picture-show one afternoon a week. It was by private contribution and selling candy at some of the schools that we raised our money.

EUGENIA GRIFFIN.

Louisville

The Louisville girls, under the leadership of Elizabeth Franke, have set an example to the rest of us by meeting early in September and starting out on their Fall campaign the first week in October! Elizabeth Franke is president, and Virginia Towle is secretary and treasurer. They are getting up a rummage sale to take place October 3rd, 4th, and 5th. Bravo!

Washington

Lucy Burleson has agreed to organize a Washington Chapter, and Virginia Miller a Texas Chapter. Once started, these chapters will surely be two of our strongest branches. Watch them!

WAYS AND MEANS

Rummage Sales

Tried out by the following chapters: Indianapolis (2), $110.00; Philadelphia, $66.00; Huntington, $25.00; Norfolk, Louisville, October, 1915. (See Reports.)

The most popular, as well as the most profitable, method of money-raising last year seemed to be by rummage sales. The chief advantage of a rummage sale is that it requires no initial expenditure. For the ideal sale, the store in which to "keep shop" as well as the dray or automobile to transport the old clothes, etc., are both lent by their owners. Nearly any article, from a collar to a bicycle, is saleable, provided it is in fairly good condition. Announce the sale some time in advance, so that your chapter members can collect their "cast-offs" gradually and beg contributions from their friends. Men's clothes sell well, and the larger the garment the more likely it is to be sold. Hang your wares on nails or ropes about the store, so that they can be seen without becoming shop-worn. Mark every article with an approximate price, and then sell for whatever you think the buyer will pay. Advertise your sale conspicuously on the door of your store and in nearby windows for several days before the sale. Do not sell anything on credit. If you do not make a fortune this way, whatever you do make will be clear gain. The following is from a letter of Carina Eaglesfield's on the subject:

"The fall is really the time to have them. The gathering of the things is important—getting enough, and the right sort for the right locality. Colored people want gaudy, well-preserved things, and Hunyacks want service. We made the ninety dollars in a Hunyack neighborhood and off of durable women's dresses (large sizes), and men's trousers and suits. The second one that I ran alone was in a colored neighborhood, and they bought hats, waists, dancing dresses, etc., and I made $20.00. The foreigners didn't buy a hat. Shoes didn't sell well in either place, though we had a raft of them. "Lynne" Brown sent a big box, mostly of shoes, from Sweet Briar."

Tableaux

Evanston, $130.00

From Evanston comes the idea of children's tableaux. Tableaux mean work, but they do not demand dramatic skill, and when the parts are taken by children the audience is always sure to be pleased. Eugenia Buffington will give suggestions and details to any chapter desiring to make money this way.

Subscription Card Parties

New York, $100.00; Oak Park, $80.00; Philadelphia, $60.00.

Rent a Theatre

Newark, $100.00

Buy out a theatre night and resell the tickets fifty cents to a dollar higher.

School Lunches

Salem-Roanoke

Selling Christmas Cards

Norfolk

Selling Christmas and Easter cards is not lucrative, but it has the advantage of requiring no capital. The card guilds allow a commission of 25 per cent, and if the cards are ordered on consignment, the unsold cards may be returned.

---

Subscription Dances

Oak Park, $20.00

Hold a series of subscription dances, if possible in your own homes, or have a progressive dance, going from house to house. If your chapter is composed of several small towns close together, each town might take its turn holding the dances.

“A Mile of Pennies”

Norfolk

Wellesley girls have raised money by miles of pennies. Coin holders, with places for twelve pennies, can be bought from Dennison and Co., New York, at $7.50 per thousand, or if any chapter wishes to try out the system with a smaller number of slips, one or two hundred can be obtained from Edith Hyslop, 508 Graydon Avenue, Norfolk, Va., for 75 cents per hundred (not including postage). Each girl is given a certain number of strips to fill, and at stated times the money is collected. No one misses the pennies, and friends are glad to help, so that the “mile of pennies” is soon complete. For state chapter or towns in which it is hard to raise money by other means, the “mile of pennies” is a god-send.

Chain Letters

Laura Portmann gathered in over $75 00 by a chain letter. She writes: “With the chain letter we reached many of the girls who didn’t know anything about the Fund. I think several ought to be started among the old girls.” This is a splendid plan, and we recommend that it be tried on a more extensive scale this year. Only have a distinguishing mark, in order to avoid confusion in case several are started.

Every girl should make some individual contribution, whether it is "earned" or set aside from her allowance. And above all, pay your dues and pledges.

An Important Suggestion from Norfolk

Mary Pinkerton gave us a list of high-school girls in the graduating class, who would probably go to college. We decided to go to see such girls and to tell them all we could about Sweet Briar.

VIRGINIA ETHERIDGE HITCH.

News

It is with exceeding temerity that we endeavor to portray in a fitting and fetching style the Finals of 1915. Our personal opinion is that (aside from our own Finals, 1914) they are the best ever enjoyed by aged and tottering alumnae of '10, '11, '12, '13, '14. In fact, so inspired were we by the large reunions and a whole row of hoods in chapel, that we "burst into song," figuratively speaking, and presented "Sweet Lavender" on five days notice. Sarah Bernhardt and Adelina Patti having established the "continued in our next" farewell tour, we trust that such histrionic lights as "Bess," "Jim" and Miss Young will again tread the boards in June. For one short week we threw off the cares of "real life" and larked and played as freshman do. We carried away with us a renewed love for "the flower fair" and a firm determination to return next June and the June after that and so on for years to come.

The Academy

Sweet Briar has opened this year with a difference in organization that perhaps a good many of you do not realize. For the first time the college and the preparatory department have been separated and organized as distinct schools. The younger girls who are doing college preparatory work are in the Sweet Briar Academy, with Mrs. H. N. Hills as their Principal. Mrs. Hills is a graduate of Wellesley and for a number of years had charge of Harcourt Place Seminary in Gambier, Ohio. Under her able direction the Academy is rapidly developing and doing splendid work in preparing students for Sweet Briar College, primarily, though its work is recognized by all eastern colleges of first rank.

For a long time there has been some confusion in the minds of outside people as to how girls could be students at Sweet Briar College and yet carry on work of the most elementary high school grade. So, in justice to the college, whose work is recognized everywhere as being strictly that of a first-grade college, it has seemed best to separate the two departments and organize the college and the preparatory school independently. With this reorganization, the college can stand more for itself and its students be allowed the privileges accorded more mature students, which has heretofore been impossible.

Then, too, the Academy will benefit equally by the change. Formerly, when the academy students ranked as sub-freshmen in college there was necessarily very little part that they could have in student activities, as most all organizations were for college students alone. The Academy with its own athletic and dramatic associations, current events club, and separate publications offers the opportunities so much needed for developing school spirit, initiative, and a sense of responsibility to the school among the younger students.

The bulk of the news will be found in the list of addresses, which has been completely revised up-to-date, with the exception of about six cases, in which we have been unable to get information. New addresses, marriages and deaths are recorded there in condensed form, and those who can read between the lines will find a wealth of interest.

1910—Louise Hooper is teaching Latin in the John Marshall High School in Richmond this year. Nan Powell is teaching English in the Farmville State Normal School.

1911—Sweet Briar has a graduate in the Orient! Alma Booth, after two years of training in Philadelphia has gone to Japan as a missionary.

1912 — Nelle Keller is teaching Latin and German in Vicksburg this winter. Frances Matson is teaching again at the Fairmount School, Mount Eagle, Tenn.

1913—Margaretta Ribble is taking a course at Cornell Medical School in New York. Bessie Grammer will spend part of the winter in Florida as governess in a private family. Ruth Houser is running a tea-room.

1914—Ruth Maurice is studying for an M. A. degree at Columbia. Laura Portman is working with the Associated Charities of Cleveland.

1915—Four of this year's graduates are already well launched on their careers: Harriet Evans is teaching at the Amherst High School, Louise Weisiger teaches at the Richmond High School, Margaret Grant at the Music Settlement School in New York, and Anne Schutte is technician for Dr. Conklin, professor of Biology at Princeton. A splendid record for Sweet Briar, and we wish them success.

Rachel Forbush is taking a training course in library work at Western Reserve University in Cleveland.

Gladys Schummers is assistant librarian at the Mechanics Institute in Rochester, N. Y.

Marjorie Strasburg is doing Charity organization work in the South.

Mary Osborne spent last winter at a dramatic school in New York. She and Alice Battey, Jessie Dixon, Julia Le Hardy and Lester Randolph are to make their debuts in Savannah this winter.

Barbara Schreier and Mary Moore are studying kindergartening in Chicago.

Marjorie Dushane is physical instructress in a convent in Minneapolis.

Gertrude Eisendrath is studying landscape gardening in Boston.

Lucile Marshall has taken an M. A. degree at Cornell, and is now superintending the farming done by the women at the New Jersey State Reformatory, Clinton, N. J.

In Dr. Jones' place this year, we have at Sweet Briar Mr. C. T. Goode from the University of Arkansas as head of the English department.

It has been necessary for Miss Young to take a short leave of absence on account of her health. Mrs. John Potts Brown, of California, has taken her place for the first semester as Director of the Music Department.

Miss Estill is studying in New York this winter and Miss Janet Thomson, of Cincinnati, has taken her place as instructor in vocal music.

Miss Etta M. Schweis has taken the position of instructor in Modern Languages held last year by Mlle. Prenez, who is this year teaching at Smith College.

Miss Helen Whittier is now instructor in the Biology Department in Miss Ballou's place.

Miss Julia Peachy Harrison has taken Miss Steyenson's place as head of the Chemistry Department. Miss Stevenson has accepted a position in the Chemistry Department at Mt. Holyoke.
